Call for Papers

Dear colleagues!

We invite you to participate in the 3rd International scientific and educational conference, devoted to the 75th anniversary of the Victory in the Great Patriotic War «The USSR in the World War II (1939-1945): problems of the historical memory», which will be held on October, 15-16, 2020 in Peter the Great St. Petersburg Polytechnic University.

The Conference is devoted to the 75th anniversary of the Victory of the USSR in the Great Patriotic War. The aim of the Conference is to discuss a wide range of issues related to history of the World War II and of the Great Patriotic War, to popularize and preserve the historical memory of the war, to discuss the role of the USSR in the Victory over fascism.

The historical memory of the war is one of the main factors that ensure the cohesion of the modern Russian society. It helps to preserve the spiritual potential, forms the moral ideals and values, and develops the worldview of young generations.

The following issues are expected to be discussed during the Conference:

- Historiography, source studies, historical memory of the war;
- Pre-war years and the beginning of the Great Patriotic War in the USSR and European countries as the object of historical analysis;
- Combat actions and Resistance to the aggressor as the factor in forming a collective memory of the war;
- Reproduction of the historical memory of the life in the Soviet rear;
- Nazi occupation in the memory of the peoples of the USSR;
- Forms and methods of perpetuating the memory of the Great Patriotic War;
- Evolution of the historical memory in the post-war period.

Conference languages:

Russian, English.

Based on the results of the Conference, it is planned to publish a collection of materials that will be indexed in the scientometric database of the RSCI. The materials will also be posted on the website of SPb PU. The best articles that will successfully pass the double-blind review will be recommended for the publication indexed in the scientometric databases Scopus and Web of Science.
